2. The Central Vigilance Commission Bill has been introduced in the Lok Sabha on 20.12.1999 to confer statutory status on the CVC. The Bill stands referred to the Joint Committee of both the Houses of Parliament on 21.12.1999 for consideration and its recommendations.

3. The Central Vigilance Commission has been vested powers vide Para 3(v) of Department of Personnel and Training Resolution No. 371/20/99-AVD. III dated 4th April, 1999 to exercise superintendence over the vigilance administration. The Commission has issued several instructions to reduce the scope of corruption such as creating a culture of honesty, greater transparency in administration, electronics clearance system and computerisation of banks, sensitising the public etc. The Central Vigilance Commission has also issued Special Chapters on vigilance management in public sector banks and public sector undertakings.

4. It is proposed to set up the institution of Lok Pal to look into the allegations of corruption against high public functionaries. Lok Pal Bill was introduced in the Lok Sabha on 3.8.1998 but lapsed on the dissolution of the 12th Lok Sabha on 26.4.1999. Steps are being taken to introduce the Bill afresh.

5. The Government set up a Working Group on 'Right to Information and Transparency' in January, 1997 which submitted its report to the Government on 21st May, 1997. The report of the Group has been processed and a Bill for Freedom of Information has been drafted. The Bill is presently under examination for introduction in the Parliament.

6. Recognising that an important aspect of Preventive Vigilance is to ensure transparency in public administration, measures of administrative reforms such as introduction of Citizens Charters and setting up of Facilitation Centre have been initiated. The review and simplification of laws, rules and procedures has also been taken up.
